

Marcus Pierce,, Artist-in-Residence

TERMS:

- Space provided to artist rent free by property owner
- Artists & Writers pay for liability insurance and provide a refundable $75 damage deposit
- Artists leave behind one artwork for property owner
- Artists & Writers open studios for First Thursday events
- Boise City & property owners promote artists/events

APPLICATION PROCESS

Artists submit by deadline (8/22/2011) the following:

- letter of interest
- resume
- up to ten digital images (jpg, 72dpi) on a CD of artwork or other work sample representing artistic practice
- two references with phone and e-mail contacts

A selection panel will meet, review applications and choose artists for available residencies. The criteria they will consider is commitment to artistic practice, demonstration of creativity, and willingness to engage with the public.

Eligibility: Open to Idaho artists of any artistic discipline (past participants have been painters, dancers, poets, sculptors, writers, photographers, and installation artists). Emerging and established artists are considered. Previous participating artists may re-apply. Two spaces are dedicated for writers, up to five for visual and/or performing artists.

AiR is sponsored by property owners at participating sites and facilitated by Boise City Department of Arts & History. Boise Weekly is the Media Sponsor.
