Two writers chosen for Boise's Artist in Residence program

Anna Webb - Idaho Statesman

Two local authors, Elizabeth Rodgers, a writer and filmmaker, and Alan Heathcock, a writer, have begun their tenures as artists in Boise's Artists in Residence (AiR) Program.

The program provides studio space on the third floor of the 8th Street Marketplace at BoDo. Artists studios are open during First Thursdays. Rodgers and Heathcock will keep their studios until March, 2011.
